Jenny Biddle
Monday 8th May
Members £6, Non-Members £9

We welcome "Melbourne's best busker" to our midst for the first time! Self described as playing a feisty guitar, a squawking blues harmonica, singing poignant lyrics from self-penned songs and ingenious covers, plus an endearing personality in a 5 foot frame, we can't wait for her arrival! Goodday Jenny!

Rallion
Monday 15th May
Members £6, Non-Members £9.

Past performers at the Club and Folk Feast, it is a treat to have this brilliant 3 piece band back to see and hear again their driving rhythms and energy. Their unique sound is based upon the fiddle powerhouse of Fiona Cuthill, the distinctive voice of Marieke McBean and the virtuoso guitar and bouzouki of Steve Lawrence.

Our chance to see a real old-school troubadour at work, and play!

Another of our double-header nights of sheer entertainment. Jo will share the bill with Aberdonian Bob who has gained a reputation for himself in the folk world as a fine singer and writer of songs in the traditional style.

Please note that for the majority of our singarounds we give a theme – but if you can't think of a song that fits, anything off-theme will do! Non-singers are also always welcome to come and listen.

Glenfarg Village Folk Club

Starting its 40th year this April, the club maintains its grand tradition of providing a platform for the live performance of folk music, song and verse.

On Monday evenings the rafters ring to the sound of top class acts, and every month or so we have a sing-around when anyone who comes along gets a chance to perform. You are guaranteed a warm welcome in the friendliest folk club there is!
